

organized neighborhoods of palm springs

ONE-PS 2019

Activities and Accomplishments Related to the Retreat Priorities:

Focus on the NOrgs

Communicate Widely and Consistently

Educate and Model Best Practices for Developing & Sustaining Successful NOrgs

NUSA Conference

- Created a fantastic diverse program
- Presented and attended sessions that further developed our skills
- Organized tours, keynote speakers, and entertainment
- Engaged 200 young and not so young volunteers, made new friends, and hosted hundreds of guests
- Planned delicious menus
- Worked and played hard

Hosted Four Candidate Forums for 3 Electoral Districts

Sponsored and Participated in City-Wide Events from Parades to Picnics

Added 3 New NOrgs and Expanded 6 Existing NOrgs

Expanded Communication Strategies

- Expanded distribution lists to include NOrg board members & interested parties
- Published the 3rd Edition of The ONE-PS Guide to Palm Springs Neighborhoods and displayed them throughout the City
- Appeared on radio interviews
- Presented to Downtown Association and other organizations
- Provided American Sign Language Services at Membership Meetings
- Considered how to best communicate ONE-PS's opinions on issues to City Council
- Featured guest presenters at Membership Meetings: Animal Shelter, Measure J, etc.

Adopted QuickBooks & Online Banking to improve Budget & Financial Planning & Reporting

Offered Brown Bag and Informative Sessions

- College of the Desert Palm Springs Campus - Scott Adkins, Director
- How to Create an Attractive & Informative NOrg Booth - Racquet Club Estates, Steve Schultz; Twin Palms, Eric Chiel
- Street Maintenance & Paving - PS Engineering Dept. Staff
- Homeless Task Force – PSPD Community Officers, Roy's Exec. Director
- CEPW Cannabis Odor Compliance – Mike Villegas & Veronica Goedhart
- Sustainability – Patrick Tallarico
- Retreat Planning Committee of 15 Volunteers!