Desert Water Agency:

Pipeline replacement webinar: Desert Water Agency's next webinar - Pipeline Replacement – the 411 on how it's done - is Nov. 18 at noon. During this webinar experts will share the strategy behind DWA's critical pipeline replacement plan. We will also discuss current projects, what areas are on deck for replacement and show you how to report water waste and what to do if you see a leak in the street. New Little Free Library: Desert Water Agency opened up a Little Free Library on Saturday it's located outside the office front door at 1200 S. Gene Autry Trail in Palm Springs. Stop by to pick up a book. We have lots of copies of the popular, local gardening guide, Lush & Efficient.

To help celebrate the launch, we're giving away a new Kindle! Follow us on Facebook (@dwawater), Instagram (@desertwateragency) or Twitter (@dwawater) to enter the contest. People can also go to www.dwa.org/library for more info. Ornament

Workshop: Join our online workshop at noon on Dec. 8 and together, we'll make a festive succulent ornament. We deliver a kit with everything you need - a succulent, ornament globe and decorations. Must be a DWA customer and live within our boundary to participate because we will be delivering the kits to homes. Cost is $5 and open to 30 participants. Go to www.dwa.org/virtual for more info on how to register.
